

A map of the state of Florida showing its 67 counties. Leon County, located in the north-central part of the state, is highlighted in a dark red color. Other counties shown in a lighter shade of red include Duval, Alachua, Orange, Hillsborough, Pinellas, and Palm Beach. The remaining counties are shown in white. The counties are labeled with their names: Escambia, Santa Rosa, Okaloosa, Holmes, Jackson, Walton, Washington, Bay, Calhoun, Liberty, Gadsden, Leon, Wakulla, Jefferson, Madison, Hamilton, Taylor, Suwannee, Columbia, Baker, Duval, Nassau, Union, Clay, St. Johns, Flagler, Volusia, Seminole, Orange, Brevard, Indian River, St. Lucie, Martin, Palm Beach, Broward, Miami-Dade, Monroe, Collier, Hendry, Glades, Charlotte, DeSoto, Hardee, Manatee, Pinellas, Pasco, Hernando, Citrus, Marion, Levy, Dixie, Gilchrist, Alachua, Putnam, Lake, Sumter, Polk, Osceola, and Brevard.

Source: Florida State University Alumni Association – June 2025